RE: Freedom of Information Act Appeal: EPA-R6-2018-000485 (Crosby, Texas, Arkema Facility, Emissions Data and Correspondence)

Dear FOIA Officer:

The Harvard Law School Emmett Environmental Law & Policy Clinic (the Clinic) is hereby appealing the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region 6's (EPA) response to the Clinic's request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended (FOIA), assigned FOIA Request No. EPA-R6-2018-000485 (the FOIA Request). EPA issued a final determination letter for the FOIA Request on April 2, 2019. As detailed below, EPA's search was inadequate and thus failed to produce responsive records.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND ABOUT THE CLINIC'S FOIA REQUEST

On October 12, 2017, the Clinic sent the FOIA Request to EPA by email. Attachment A.¹ In its request, the Clinic sought the following records:

1. Inspections at the Arkema facility in Crosby, Texas conducted pursuant to the facility's Risk Management Plan between January 2010 and October 12, 2017;
2. All sampling data, flyover records, and inspections at or from the Arkema facility in Crosby, Texas, and any results and analysis of such monitoring and inspections between January 2010 and October 12, 2017;

¹ The Clinic sent the same request to EPA Headquarters on October 20, 2017 (EPA-HQ-2018-000841); this FOIA request was closed on November 20, 2018 with a determination that "the Office of Land and Emergency Management does not have responsive documents to this request." Rather, EPA Headquarters reported that "Region 6... would have responsive documents related to what you're requesting."

3. Any correspondence between the EPA and any employee, owner, representative of, or lobbyist representing the Arkema facility in Crosby Texas between January 2015 and October 12, 2017; and
4. Any correspondence within the EPA or between the EPA and other federal or state government officials concerning the Arkema facility in Crosby, Texas between January 2010 and October 12, 2017.

Id. The Clinic further asked EPA to redact any exempt portions of the responsive records and provide all non-privileged, non-exempt portions of the records in its response. Id.

EPA began producing documents in response to the FOIA Request in November 2017 and referring the Clinic to public websites and related requests.² On April 2, 2019, EPA “concluded its search and review for responsive records.” Attachment B (Final Determination Letter). EPA further informed the Clinic that the FOIA Request was referred to the United States Department of Defense, Transportation Security Administration, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and Federal Emergency Management Agency for additional review. See id.

DISCUSSION

FOIA requires agencies to conduct searches that are “reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents.” Weisberg v. U.S. Dep’t of Justice, 705 F.2d 1344, 1351 (D.C. Cir. 1983). The agency must make a good faith effort to conduct a search for the requested records and follow “clear leads” that “may indicate, for example, other offices that should have been searched, additional search terms that should have been used, or records custodians who should have been consulted.” Rollins v. U.S. Dep’t of State, 70 F.Supp.3d 546, 550 (D.D.C. 2014). Records provided or referred to the Clinic in response to the FOIA Request establish a “sufficient predicate” for searching for the following categories of additional records, which are at the heart of the FOIA Request. Campbell v. U.S. Dep’t of Justice, 164 F.3d 20, 28–29 (D.C. Cir. 1998) (citation omitted).

I. GROUND AIR MONITORING DATALOGS

According to records from EPA, the agency conducted its own ground air-monitoring at the Arkema site outside the 1.5 mile evacuation zone using the following equipment: MultiRae Plus (a multi-sensor configuration photo ionization monitor that detects O₂, H₂S, LEL, VOC, SO₂, and CO), the Draeger Chip Management System or CMS (chemical-specific chips and colorimetric tubes that were chosen to detect chlorine and SO₂), and additional equipment such as AreaRAEs.³

The Clinic’s review of FOIA productions to which it was referred by EPA suggests that at least the MultiRae Plus monitors (PMG 50-5P) and AreaRAEs are capable of generating and recording raw data (i.e., datalogging).⁴ However, EPA only provided one MultiRae Plus monitor reading for the Arkema site from August 31, 2017 (monitored chemical compounds include SO₂, VOC, and H₂S).⁵ This print-out is a “clear lead” that additional records, i.e. datalogs, exist for EPA ground air monitoring efforts at the Arkema site in Crosby, Texas. The Clinic requests that EPA produce these records in accordance with FOIA’s requirements.

II. FINAL VERSIONS OF THE ASPECT REPORTS

Records responsive to the FOIA Request establish sufficient grounds of EPA’s failure to produce revised, final versions of Airborne Spectral Photometric Environmental Collection Technology (ASPECT) reports. For example, communications provided to the Clinic regarding version 7 of the ASPECT Report, dated September 2, 2017, confirm that the report was revised several times to include chemical detections later in the day.⁶ The name of the document attached to one of these communications is “Preliminary Report for ASPECT Hurricane Harvey v8.pdf”.⁷ These communications indicate that ASPECT reports were revised over the course of a day and that final versions of such reports exist. The Clinic requests that EPA produce all final ASPECT reports in accordance with FOIA’s disclosure mandate.⁸

III. AIR EMISSIONS REPORT FROM THE TEXAS COMMISSION ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

Records responsive to the FOIA Request indicate that additional searches are warranted for Dr. Michael Honeycutt’s air emissions report to Liz Bowman (EPA Headquarters) and David Gray (EPA Region 6). On September 4, 2017, Liz Bowman emailed Ryan Vise at the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) requesting air monitoring data around Crosby, Texas.⁹ Ryan Vise forwarded Bowman’s message to Dr. Michael Honeycutt, who then replied to Bowman and David Gray with multiple attachments.¹⁰ Dr. Honeycutt reported that he was “going to put [the data] into some coherent shape and write a report on it in the next couple of days.”¹¹ These communications indicate that a report by Dr. Honeycutt concerning air emissions

CONCLUSION

We look forward to EPA's response within twenty (20) working days. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(ii); 40 C.F.R. § 2.104(k). Please send all records and any related correspondence by email to ajoroff@law.harvard.edu.
